Civil Action No. 5:17-cv-530

COMPLAINT FOR:

- 1. Federal Trademark Infringement;
- 2. Federal Trademark Dilution;
- 3. Federal Unfair Competition; and
- 4. Common Law Unfair Competition

1 Plaintiff, Coachella Valley Water District alleges the following against 2 Defendants doxo, Inc., a corporation, and Does 1-10, Inclusive (collectively the 3 “Defendants”):

4 THE PARTIES

5 1. Plaintiff Coachella Valley Water District (“CVWD” or “Plaintiff”) is 6 a special district established by the state legislature and certified by California state
 7 officials on January 16, 1918. CVWD is a government agency located within 8 Riverside County, California. CVWD provides water service to the public for a fee
 9 and bills the customers. CVWD provides a bill paying service on its Internet Web 10 site.

11 2. Defendant doxo, Inc. (“Doxo”) is a Seattle corporation not qualified to 12 do business in California with its principal place of business located at 815 1st
 13 Avenue, Seattle, WA 98104.

14 3. The true names and capacities of Defendants sued herein as Does 1-10, 15 inclusive, are unknown to the Plaintiff and therefore the Plaintiff sues them by such 16 fictitious names. When the true names and capacities of these Defendants have been 17 ascertained, the Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to insert
 18 in lieu of such fictitious names the true names and capacities of the fictitiously-
 19 named Defendants. The Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that 20 the Defendants participated in, and in some part, or entirely, are responsible for the 21 illegal acts alleged herein.

22 4. Whenever reference in this Complaint is made to any acts of 23 Defendants, such allegation shall mean that each of the Defendants acted 24 individually and jointly with the other Defendants named in that cause of action.

25 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

26 5. This is an action for pecuniary and injunctive relief from violations of 27 the Lanham Act, arising under the laws of the United States, and for pecuniary and

1 injunctive relief for common law unfair competition and trademark violations under 2 California Law.

3 6. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action as 4 provided for in 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1338; and 15 U.S.C. § 1121. This Court also has 5 jurisdiction under the doctrine of supplemental jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

6 7. doxo is subject to personal jurisdiction in this court because minimum
7 contacts exist between doxo and California and the activities of doxo in California
8 that give rise to this suit, as alleged in this Complaint, are continuous and 9 systematic.

10 8. This court also has jurisdiction over doxo because it is not qualified to 11 do business in California and it transacts intrastate business in California (Cal.
12 Corp. Code § 191), as alleged in this Complaint. Therefore doxo is deemed by law
13 to have consented to the jurisdiction of the courts of California in any civil action
14 arising in this state in which the corporation is named as a defendant. (Cal. Corp.
15 Code § 2203(a)).

16 9. Furthermore doxo was served with a cease and desist letter regarding 17 the acts complained of in the Complaint. While Defendants did remove the logo of 18 CVWD from the offending Internet Web site, which was one of the demands in the 19 cease and desist letter, Defendants have otherwise failed and refused to cease and 20 desist their unlawful actions, and as a result are intentionally engaging in 21 continuing acts aimed at and causing harm in the forum state of the Plaintiff. Such 22 confers personal jurisdiction as a matter of law. See, Wash. Shoe Co. v. A-Z
23 Sporting Goods Inc., 704 F.3d 668, 678 (9th Cir. Wash. 2012).

24 10. Venue is proper in this court under 28 U.S. C. § 1391 because a 25 substantial portion of the wrongdoing alleged in this Complaint takes place in 26 Riverside County, California.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

11. CVWD has common law trademark rights in its name “Coachella Valley Water District.” CVWD conducts the business of providing water service to the public and uses the name “Coachella Valley Water District” as a service mark in connection therewith and in connection with a bill paying service for its customers. Plaintiff has been continuously using the name “Coachella Valley Water District” as a service mark in connection with providing water service to the public for nearly 100 years. The mark is unregistered.

12. Defendants have created and operate an Internet Web site that prominently features CVWD’s “Coachella Valley Water District” service mark. Defendants’ Internet Web site is presented in a manner that makes it appear that it is a Web site of the Plaintiff, or that it is a Web site that is endorsed by, or affiliated with, the Plaintiff. The Defendants’ Web site initially and additionally featured the logo of CVWD, but the logo was removed after Defendants’ receipt of the cease and desist letter sent by Plaintiff. The remainder of the cease and desist demands have not been complied with however.

13. Defendants maintain an Internet Web site where customers of CVWD can pay their monthly water bill owing to the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff also has its own bill paying Web page where customers of CVWD can pay their monthly water bill owing to the Plaintiff. Plaintiff is informed and believes that its customers are diverted from its Web site to the deceptively similar Web site of the Defendants. The Defendants’ Web site is designed and presented such that it appears to be maintained by or affiliated with the Plaintiff.

14. The deceptive nature of the Defendants’ Web site includes but is not limited to the following:

A. The Defendants’ Web site is prominently titled with Plaintiff’s name “Coachella Valley Water District.” Plaintiff’s name is prominently and repeatedly featured on the Web site. In the few places Defendants’ “doxo”

1 name appears, it is minimized, is in smaller font and not as prominent, and is 2 not clearly identified as having any particular meaning. (Exhibit "A").

3 B. The Defendants' Web site states: "Pay your bill – Coachella
4 Valley Water District" and has a box where the amount for payment of the 5 customer's monthly Coachella Valley Water District bill can be entered.
6 (Exhibit "A"). There is a link to a second Web page that states "Enter Your 7 Coachella Valley Water District Bill Details." (Exhibit "B").

8 C. Defendants' Web site has a section "Coachella Valley Water
9 District FAQ" which appears to be CVWD answering frequently asked
10 questions about itself. (Exhibit "A").

11 D. Defendants' Web site has direct clickable links to CVWD's
12 Web site that do not give attribution to Plaintiff and thus makes it appear that 13 some of Plaintiff's Web pages are part of Defendants' Web site, as follows:

14 (1) A "$ Pay Bill" link that when clicked on goes to the Web
15 page represented by Exhibit "B" hereto.

16 (2) An "Online Login" link that when clicked on goes to the 17 Plaintiff's billing system login Web page. (Exhibit "C").

18 (3) A "Customer Service" link that when clicked on goes to 19 one of Plaintiff's Web pages but is a broken link. (Exhibit "D"). The 20 fact that the customer service Web page link is a broken link casts
21 Plaintiff in an unfavorable light to its customers and the public.

22 (4) A "Website" link that when clicked upon goes to the 23 CVWD homepage. (Exhibit "A").

24 E. The look and feel of Defendants' Web site is confusingly similar 25 to Plaintiff's because, among other things, the Defendants use a similar color
26 scheme and layout. Similar blue and grey colors are used, and the block 27 formatting is similar.

28 ///

1 F. Similar complaints have been raised concerning the Defendants'
 2 activities, including one by the Southeast Colorado Power Association
 3 ("SECPA"). SECPA maintains a Web site that states in part:

4 "Scam Alert!

5 Alert: Unaffiliated bill payment service targeting SECPA
 6 members

7 It has recently come to our attention that a company
 8 known as Doxo, Inc., which is not affiliated with 9 Southeast Colorado Power Association, is using our 10 contact information and reputation to market its online
 11 bill payment service to potential customers. SECPA is not 12 in partnership with this company and have not authorized
 13 them to use our logo or materials. Furthermore, we do
 14 not require that members use Doxo's services to pay
 15 invoices.

16 SECPA already offers secure online bill pay from our 17 website, as well other payment options."

18 (Exhibit "E").

19 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Federal Trademark Infringement 15 U.S.C. § 1125)

21 15. Plaintiff incorporates each of the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 22 through 14 hereinabove, as though fully set forth in this paragraph.

23 16. Plaintiff has been continuously using the name "Coachella Valley 24 Water District" as a service mark in connection with providing water service to the 25 public, including billing the public therefore, for nearly 100 years. The Plaintiff has 26 common law trademark rights in its service mark and the exclusive right to use the 27 service mark, excluding all others. Given its long and continuous use and extensive 28 public exposure the "Coachella Valley Water District" service mark has acquired secondary meaning and further is a famous mark. The mark is unregistered.

1 17 Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act creates a federal cause of action for 2 infringement of unregistered marks. 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1)(A). The Lanham Act
3 authorizes courts to grant injunctions thereunder. 15 U.S.C. § 1116(a).

4 18. Defendants, and each of them, have infringed, and continue to infringe
5 the Plaintiff's service mark referenced hereinabove, in the manner referenced 6 hereinabove.

7 19. Defendants' infringing activities are likely to cause confusion, mistake,
8 or deception among consumers as to the source, quality, and nature of Defendants'
9 services relative to Plaintiff. For example, Defendants use Plaintiff's service mark 10 "Coachella Valley Water District" on Defendants' Web site providing a service for 11 consumers to pay bills owing to Plaintiff. Plaintiff provides its own billing service
12 on its own Web site for consumers to pay bills owing to Plaintiff. Defendants'
13 prominent use of Plaintiff's service mark, use of direct links to Plaintiff's Web site
14 that are not attributed, and the similar look and feel of the Web sites, make it look 15 like Plaintiff's and Defendants' Web sites are unified or affiliated. Plaintiff is 16 informed and believes that the Defendants are attempting to confuse consumers by 17 creating the appearance that their Web site is Plaintiff's Web site, or that 18 Defendants are endorsed by or affiliated with Plaintiff.

19 20. Defendants' continued use of Plaintiff's service mark has caused, and 20 will continue to cause, irreparable harm and injury to the Plaintiff and its reputation 21 and goodwill, for which the Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law. The threat of 22 future injury to the general public, and to the Plaintiff's business, identity, goodwill 23 and reputation, necessitates the award of injunctive relief to prevent the 24 Defendants' continued wrongful and false acts and/or the use and infringement of 25 the Plaintiff's name and service mark.

26 21. Defendants are in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c) and Plaintiff is 27 entitled to recovery of (1) Defendants' profits, (2) any damages sustained by the 28 Plaintiff, and (3) the costs of the action, all according to proof. Plaintiff is informed

1 and believes that Defendants' infringement is intentional, willful, and/or deliberate,
2 and this case should be declared an "exceptional case" pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §
3 1117, and that Defendants should be ordered to pay Plaintiff's attorney fees
4 according to proof.

5 22. This Complaint is further notice to the Defendants of Plaintiff's 6 ownership of the above referenced service mark, and rights, and is a notice and 7 demand to Defendants to immediately cease and desist their unlawful activities.
8 Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants continue to refuse to comply.

9 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

10 (Federal Trademark Dilution 15 U.S.C. § 1125)

11 23. Plaintiff repeats and realleges every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 12 through 14, and 16 through 22 hereinabove, as though fully set forth in this 13 paragraph.

14 24. Plaintiff's service mark is famous under the definition of 15 U.S.C. § 15 1125.

16 25. Defendants' use of the Plaintiff's service mark as alleged hereinabove 17 began after Plaintiff's service mark became famous. Defendants' actions blur and 18 tarnish the distinctive qualities of Plaintiff's famous mark. Plaintiff is informed and 19 believes that Defendants have intentionally copied, and continue to copy, Plaintiff's
20 mark and use it on Defendants' Web site providing a billing service nearly identical 21 to that provided by Plaintiff to its customers. Defendants' actions impugn the 22 Plaintiff's reputation for excellence symbolized by Plaintiff's mark. Plaintiff is 23 deprived of its lawful right to control the reputation for excellence and high quality
24 symbolized by its mark by Defendants' actions.

25 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' conduct is causing 26 confusion and/or deception of the public that Defendants' service is in some way 27 sponsored by, affiliated with, or approved by Plaintiff, when it is not. Plaintiff is 28

1 informed and believes that Defendants' actions have resulted in actual harm to the 2 Plaintiff.

3 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, as a direct
4 and proximate result of Defendants' actions in misappropriating and diluting
5 Plaintiff's mark, and the resulting advantage accruing to Defendants' business from 6 Plaintiff's advertising, sales, and consumer recognition, and as a proximate result of 7 confusion, deception, or mistake, caused thereby, that Defendants have made 8 substantial profits, in an amount in excess of $10,000, and subject to proof.

9 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, as a direct
10 and proximate result of Defendants' actions in misappropriating and diluting
11 Plaintiff's mark, and the resulting advantage accruing to Defendants' business from 12 Plaintiff's advertising, sales, and consumer recognition, and as a proximate result of 13 confusion, deception, or mistake, caused thereby, that Plaintiff has been deprived in 14 some part of the value of its service mark, in an amount in excess of $10,000, and 15 subject to proof.

16 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that, unless 17 restrained and enjoined by this Court, Defendants will continue to misappropriate
18 and dilute Plaintiff's mark referenced hereinabove, in the manner alleged 19 hereinabove, thus engendering a multiplicity of judicial proceedings, and pecuniary 20 compensation is inadequate, and will not afford Plaintiff adequate relief for the 21 ongoing damage to its mark and reputation in the public perception. The Court 22 should further order that all infringing advertising materials shall be delivered up by 23 Defendants and destroyed and/or remove from the Internet.

24 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' misappropriation
25 and dilution of Plaintiff's mark is intentional, willful, and/or deliberate, and this 26 case should be declared an "exceptional case" pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117, and 27 that Defendants should be ordered to pay Plaintiff's attorney fees and costs,
28 according to proof.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Federal Unfair Competition 15 U.S.C. § 1125)

31. Plaintiff repeats and realleges every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 14, 16 through 22, and 24 through 30 hereinabove, as though fully set forth in this paragraph.

32. By the acts described hereinabove, Defendants have engaged in ongoing unlawful and unfair business practices, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125.

33. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' unlawful and unfair business practices, Plaintiff is informed and believes it has suffered damages in excess of $10,000 and subject to proof at trial, and that Defendants have made substantial profits, in an amount in excess of $10,000, and subject to proof, which Plaintiff is entitled to recover.

34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that, unless restrained and enjoined by this Court, Defendants will continue to engage in unfair business practices as alleged hereinabove, thus engendering a multiplicity of judicial proceedings, and pecuniary compensation is inadequate, and will not afford Plaintiff adequate relief for the ongoing damage. The Court should further order that all advertising and other materials used in connection with the herein alleged unfair competition shall be delivered up by Defendants and destroyed and/or removed from the Internet.

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' unfair competition is intentional, willful, and/or deliberate, and this case should be declared an "exceptional case" pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117, and that Defendants be ordered to pay Plaintiff's attorney fees and costs, according to proof.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Common Law Unfair Competition)

36. Plaintiff repeats and realleges every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 14, 16 through 22, 24 through 30, and 32 through 35 hereinabove, as though fully set forth in this paragraph.

37. By the acts described hereinabove, Defendants have engaged in ongoing unfair competition by trademark infringement, in violation of common law. This includes Defendants' implying a governmental connection likely to mislead the public. By analogy Cal. Bus & Prof. Code § 17533.6 states:

it is unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, or association that is a nongovernmental entity to use a seal, emblem, insignia, trade or brand name, or any other term, symbol, or content that reasonably could be interpreted or construed as implying any federal, state, or local government . . . connection, approval, or endorsement of any product or service, including, but not limited to, any financial product, goods, or services, by any means, including, but not limited to, a mailing, electronic message, Internet Web site . . .

38. Plaintiff is informed and believes that the Defendants' above alleged unfair competition is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception among consumers as to the source, quality, and nature of Defendants' goods, and is likely to lead to consumer confusion with the Plaintiff and its services. Plaintiff has not given permission to Defendants to engage in the above referenced activities, and, is not connected with and does not approve the activities and services of the Defendants.

39. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, as a direct and proximate result of the advantage accruing to Defendants' business from Plaintiff's advertising, sales, and consumer recognition, and as a proximate result of confusion, deception, or mistake, caused by Defendants' wrongful advertising and

1 sales of its services by the aforesaid acts of unfair competition, that Defendants 2 have made substantial profits, in an amount in excess of $10,000, and subject to 3 proof.

4 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, as a direct 5 and proximate result of the advantage accruing to Defendants' business from 6 Plaintiff's advertising, sales, and consumer recognition, and as a proximate result of 7 confusion, deception, or mistake, caused by Defendants' wrongful advertising and 8 sales of its services by the aforesaid acts of unfair competition that Plaintiff has 9 been deprived in some part of the value of its service mark as commercial asset, all 10 in an amount believed to be in excess of $10,000, and subject to proof.

11 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that, unless 12 restrained and enjoined by the court that Defendants will continue to infringe upon 13 Plaintiff's service mark and continue to engage in the aforesaid unfair competition 14 in the manner alleged hereinabove, thus engendering a multiplicity of judicial 15 proceedings, and pecuniary compensation is inadequate, and will not afford
16 Plaintiff adequate relief for the ongoing damage to its service mark in the public
17 perception. The court should further order that all infringing advertising materials 18 shall be delivered up by Defendants and destroyed and/or removed from the 19 Internet.

20 REQUESTED RELIEF

21 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff CVWD prays for judgment against Defendants and 22 each of them, jointly and severally:

23 A. That Defendants and their owners, officers, agents, servants, 24 employees, attorneys, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors, and all others in 25 active concert or participation with them or acting on their behalf, be preliminarily 26 and permanently enjoined from selling, advertising, or in any way providing

22 4. File with this court and serve on Plaintiff a report in writing

26 C. That Defendants be ordered to account for and disgorge and pay to 27 Plaintiff all profits derived by Defendants from their aforesaid acts, including acts 28

1 of infringement, dilution, and unfair competition, in an amount in excess of $10,000
2 and according to proof;
